

Jayne is passionate about educating and equipping business owners, advisors and community members on value creation and transition planning.

Speaking Topics

- Preparing for Your Future Exit or Transition
- Economic Risk of the Baby Boomer Business Owner Exits
- Retaining Business & Talent Through Effective Succession Planning
- Are You Building a Lifestyle or Value-Based Business?
- Topics tailored to your event and organization

Events

- Keynote Speaker
- Breakout Sessions & Panels
- Half-Day Workshops
- Lunch & Learn Events
- Podcasts and Media Interviews

About Jayne McQuillan

Jayne McQuillan founded Journey Consulting in 2007 with one mission - to Change Lives by Transforming Businesses. She is a respected thought leader, Certified Exit Planning Advisor, strategic consultant, board member, and author of "The Value Journey: How to Drive Profits, Build Wealth, and Exit Your Business on Your Own Terms."

Jayne is a sought-after speaker for large and small group events, receiving rave reviews for her valuable insights and engaging presentations.

With 30+ years in succession and transition planning, strategic planning, organizational development, budgeting and business planning, and leadership development, Jayne works with privately held and family businesses, providing expert guidance in strategic planning, exit and succession planning, business value growth, financial expertise, and organizational improvement.

“ Jayne brought significant value to our Bank First clients. Highly recommend.

Every business owner who attended found the session to be well worth their time to learn how to build value and prepare for their future exit. Jayne's engaging presentation made the owners feel comfortable and well-informed while bringing valuable insights to owners looking to exit in the short or long term. I would highly recommend this session to all my business clients.

- Matthew Booker, VP Business Banking

Expert guidance for privately owned and family businesses.

(920) 770-4141 | www.journeyconsult.com | info@journeyconsult.com

